Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Definitions:

Equality - Is ensuring individuals or groups of individuals are not treated differently or less favourably, based on their specific protected characteristic.

Diversity - Is about recognising differences. It is acknowledging the benefit of having a range of perspectives in decision-making and the workforce being representative of the club's customers.

Inclusion - Is where people's differences are valued and used to enable everyone to thrive at the club. An inclusive working environment is one in which everyone feels that they belong without having to conform, that their contribution matters and they can perform to their full potential, no matter their background, identity or circumstances. An inclusive workplace has fair policies and practices in the place and enables a diverse range of people to work together effectively.

Types of Discrimination:

An individual may experience different forms of discrimination. Discrimination may take the form of:

- Direct discrimination – this occurs when someone is treated less favourably than another person because of a protected characteristic they have.

- Indirect discrimination – this occurs when a condition, rule, policy or practice applies to everyone but particularly disadvantages people who share a protected characteristic.
- Discrimination by association - this is direct discrimination against someone because they associate with another person who possesses a protected characteristic.
- Discrimination by perception - this is direct discrimination against someone because an individual believes that another individual possesses a particular protected characteristic when they do not have that protected characteristic.
- Victimisation – this occurs when someone is treated less favourably because of making or supporting a complaint about discrimination, such as being denied a training opportunity or a promotion because they made/supported a complaint or raised a grievance under the Equality Act 2010, or because they are suspected of doing so.
- Harassment – this is where there is unwanted conduct, related to one of the protected characteristics (other than marriage and civil partnership, and pregnancy and maternity) that has the purpose or effect of violating a person's dignity; or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. It does not matter whether or not this effect was intended by the person responsible for the conduct.
- Bullying – this is a form of personal harassment involving the misuse of power, influence or position to persistently criticise, humiliate or undermine an individual.

Complaints and Compliance:

The Club consider all forms of discriminatory behaviour, including (but not limited to) behaviour described in the Legal Obligations section of this Policy as unacceptable, and is concerned with ensuring individuals feel able to raise any bona fide grievance, report or complaint related to such behaviour without fear of being penalised for doing so.

Appropriate sanctions will be taken against any committee member, club official, player, spectator, participant in outreach programmes and other people engaged with the Club's activities who violate this Equality Policy.

Any individual who believes that they have been treated in a way that they consider to be in breach of this Policy by any other Club representative should in the first instance, and if they feel able to do so try and discuss it with that person. If that does not resolve the matter, or in the case of allegations against the Club itself, the individual may raise the matter with their manager, a staff member, or the Club Welfare Officer / Safeguarding Officer.
